2 GENERAL

2.1 Basics

The 2026 Men's Fistball European Championship (EM) will be held according to the current regulations (IFA Rules of Play, IFA Rules of Play and EFA Regulations «European Championship») of the International (IFA) or European Fistball Association (EFA).

2.2 Venue

Tønder (Tondern, Denmark) / www.toender.dk

The 2026 Men's Fistball European Championship will take place in Tønder (Danish: Tønder) in southern Denmark. This historic town lies near the German Danish border and is characterized by a vibrant history, Nordic culture, and strong ties to the region. With its central location, excellent accessibility, and sports-friendly infrastructure, Tønder offers ideal conditions for hosting a major international event. The town is known for its welcoming atmosphere, historic buildings, and proximity to the unique landscape of the Wadden Sea National Park. Players, coaches, and spectators can expect a venue that combines top-level sporting performance with Nordic hospitality.

Sports field: BankParken Tønder, Holmevej 1D, DK-6270 Tønder/Tøndern

3 DELEGATIONS

3.1 Participating member associations

3.1.1 Reports

The following teams have registered for the European Championships (EM) for men:

Nations
Group A			Group B
	GER	Germany		DNK	Denmark
	AUT	Austria		CZE	Czech Republic
	SUI	Switzerland		BEL	Belgium
	ITA	Italy		SRB	Serbia

3.1.2 Delegation size

The official delegation of the member associations consists of up to 10 players, 3 coaches and 1 delegation leader per category.

3.1.3 Additional delegation members

Additional delegation members (support staff, media representatives) are permitted. They will be accredited under the same conditions as the delegation. Tickets for the joint dinner on Wednesday evening are an additional charge.

3.2 Economic conditions

The participating member associations are to bear the following costs:

- Travel expenses to the venue
- Costs for accommodation and full board for the delegation (exception: joint banquet)

3.3 Dress code

3.3.1 Color

Participating member associations are required to bring two sets of jerseys in contrasting colors to prevent both teams from wearing (practically) identical jerseys during matches. The jersey colors are listed in the online form to be listed at bdn.dk/team_registration/.

The jerseys to be worn will be determined by the competition management. Coaches and substitutes will each wear a different colored top than the rest of the team.

3.3.2 Jersey advertising

The provisions of the IFA Rules of Play (section 8) apply in principle.

3.4 Reports

3.4.1 Team photo

The participating member associations are required to submit a current team photo with caption via the online form no later than Sunday, July 12, 2026 to send to bdn.dk/team_registration/.

3.4.2 Team registration

The final team roster must also be submitted by Sunday, July 12, 2026 at the latest using the online form to register at bdn.dk/team_registration/.

Any subsequent changes must be reported to the competition management by Tuesday, August 11, 2026, at 6:00 PM.

3.5 Accommodation

For overnight stays during the Men's Fistball European Championship, various options are available around the sports complex and in and around Tondern (Denmark).

Detailed information for teams regarding accommodation can be found at www.fistball-euro.dk Further information can be found under the heading "For Teams (Accommodation)."

Detailed information for fans and guests regarding accommodation can be found at www.fistball-euro.dk Further information can be found under the heading "For Fans & Guests (Accommodation)."

3.6 Lunch

The organizers offer lunch for the teams during the event from Wednesday to Saturday. Lunch can also be selected for each day, specifying the preferred time, via the online form at bdn.dk/team_registration/.

3.7 Changing rooms & team area
